

MAPLE LIFE FINANCIAL OBTAINS GEORGIA LIFE SETTLEMENT PROVIDER LICENSE

BETHESDA, MD, April 24, 2008—Maple Life Financial is pleased to announce that it has been granted a life settlement provider license by the Georgia Department of Insurance. Maple Life Financial is an experienced life settlement provider and has serviced the Georgia market for many years. Maple Life did business in Georgia as a provider before Georgia’s licensing laws were enacted in 2005 and continued to conduct business in Georgia under the grandfathering clause after the licensure laws went into effect.

“Maple Life Financial proudly serves seniors across the country, including residents of the State of Georgia. We are gratified to be one of the few life settlement providers that have actually been issued a license in Georgia. Maple Life Financial is committed to being the most compliant and consumer friendly organization in the life settlement industry. We are gratified to have earned the Georgia Commissioner’s confidence,” said Nate Evans, President and CEO of Maple Life Financial.
